NOVEMBER BOOKS

Word Up! by George Weatherford
My Friend Billy by George Weatherford.
As Simple As by George Weatherford.

Week One – Impeccability

Impeccability of the word can lead you to personal freedom, to huge success and abundance; it can take away all fear and transform it into joy and love. Doing what you say when you say you will and saying exactly what you mean.

Week Two – Objectivity

The objective Truth about you is that you are Love, Intelligence and Beauty. We must be so solid in our own foundation and the objectivity of our own truth that we are unshaken by the actions and words of others.

Week Three – Inquiry

To avoid errors, mistakes (miss-takes) or assumptions, it is always best to inquire. Don't be afraid to ask if you are unfamiliar with something. The simple practice of asking, "Tell me more" creates great relationships.

Week Four – Excellence

Always doing your best is the way to build the habit of excellence. Only you know what your personal best is. Seek excellence in all you do and say. Build a habit of excellence by always doing what you love, loving what you do, and doing it well.

Teen Youth News for November

Our community field trip to the Conservator's Center last month was wonderful and educational. We all had a great time touring the facility and seeing all the animals --- tigers, lions, wolves, and much more! Hearing the lions roar up close was very loud and memorable! We had great fun!

The campfire last month at Rev. Bill and Mary Pat's home was so much fun! Great food, music and friends! Lots of great conversation too.

Big Invitation to Make A Difference! The teens/tweens are invited to help decorate the TCSL Angel Tree in the youth area on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8th from 6:00 pm – 7:30pm. Our community will have the opportunity to once again gift many families in Wake County. Please let me know at dtg999@gmail.com if you can come.

Blessings,

Diane
